Discussion of Upcoming Events

- Syracuse High School not approving dates for rentals and concerts. Dates are submitted, but have not been confirmed or denied, Christopher says the school staff said they are not currently approving dates until they can confirm if they have technicians.
- Orchestra Concert on December 2nd.
- Finding Nemo Jr. performances November 7th thru 9th.
- Addams Family performances in July 2025.
- There were many letters of interest for Addams Family's production team submitted and LeAnna noted that we should email the applicants letting them know that we are interested in their involvement and will reach out shortly to confirm participation.
- It was voted on that Libby Fawcett and LeAnna Hamblin will co-produce Addams Family and Heather Ganus will direct. All present voted "ay".

Publicity

- Kenzie requested all members of the arts council send her a headshot as well as a short biography, so she may post them on the council's website. Heather offered to touch up headshots if wanted.

Walk-In Items

- There will be no meeting in December, however, there will be a council Christmas party. It was voted that the party will take place on December 20th, all present voted "ay".
- It was voted that January's meeting on January 1st will be moved to January 8th. All present voted "ay".
- Heather Sachs received the check from our June bingo fundraiser. She brought it to the front desk of city hall. The person at the desk said they would deposit the check under Kresta's account.
